Police Court.

In Judge January's Court Tuesday Wess Current was fined $10 for drunkenness and disorderly conduct.

Lemonade Gabe will be at the Bourbon fair this week with Stuart's famous lemonade.

Rev. Moody Resigns.

Rev. Hughes G. Moody, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Mt. Sterling, has resigned his charge and will go to Wilber, Pa., where he has accepted a call from a large church.

Covington Couple Marry Here.

In County Clerk Pearce Paton's office yesterday afternoon, Mr. Benjamin F. Fisher and Miss Emily Sutton, both from Covington, were united in marriage by Elder Carey E. Morgan.

A Correction.

In the notice appearing in the News yesterday in regard to the prices of admission to the post season series between Paris and Winchester it was stated the admission fee for adults would be 25 cents, which should have been 35 cents.

Express Office Will Move.

The purchase of the building on Broadway, now occupied by the Adams Express Company by the First National Bank, will necessitate the moving of the express company, which has leased the room in the old postoffice building and will shortly move to their new quarters.

Stuart's famous lemonade will be found at the first stand in the Midway this week.

New Filters for City School.

The School Board has had placed in the Paris City School three new and improved Pasteur filters which makes five in all now in the building. This will furnish all the children with plenty of pure and wholesome water and no danger is to be feared in regard to impure water being used in the school.

J. T. HINTON.

Thinks Paris Will Win Cham- pionship.

Heinie Seebach, of the Frankfort club, formerly a member of the Paris aggregation, expressed the opinion after the game here Sunday afternoon that Paris would walk away with the Hustlers in the championship series.
Seebach, who is a pretty good judge of the relative strength of the two clubs, thinks Paris has the best hitters, best fielders and when it comes to pitchers the Bourbonite heavers are in a class by themselves.

Steve Kane Will Act as Umpire.

Steve Kane, who has umpired several games in this city, will handle the indicator in all of the championship games to be played between Paris and Winchester. Kane was selected above all the other league umpires, because of his ability to handle the players.
He allows no discussion of his decisions and makes the players walk the chalk line. He is the best umpire that has been in this company and the fact that he is to hold the balance of power in the series which begins this afternoon is assurance of a square deal for both the contending clubs.

Case Postponed Until Today.

The case of Anse and Drucilla White, under indictment for the murder of Jason Deaton in Breathitt county came up in the Montgomery Circuit Court Monday, where it had been transferred on a change of venue. Fifty witnesses were summoned in the case. White secured a postponement after making an affidavit that his witnesses were absent and the case will come up again today. A special bailiff was sent to Breathitt county to secure the missing witnesses.

MATRIMONIAL.

—The marriage of Mr. A. B. Barkley, Jr., of Georgetown, and Miss Lucy Marshall Redmon, of this county, was solemnized at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Redmon, on the Ruddles Mills pike near this city Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. Carey Williams, of the Georgetown Presbyterian church officiating.

Mr. and Mrs. Tablott Evans were the only attendants; Mrs. Evans being a sister of the bride. Immediately after the ceremony the young couple left for Cincinnati where they will be until Friday, after which they will return to Georgetown to make their home.
The bride is a most attractive, talented and capable young woman and very popular.

Mr. Barkley is associated with his father in the harness business in Georgetown and is a popular, energetic and progressive young man.

The following Georgetown people attended the wedding: Mr. and Mrs.
A. B. Barkley, Sr., Mr. and Mrs. Talbott Evans, Mrs. Rowan C. Jones and Miss Maurice Cole.

Bourbonites Off for Winchester.

The Paris Base Ball team left this morning on the 10:15 L. N. train for Winchester, where they will meet the Hustlers in the first game of the postseason series for the championship of the Blue Grass League, in that city this afternoon.

McKernan is confident of taking the opening game of the series, as the members of the club are all in good shape and going at their best. Mc-Kernan in all probability will send Shears to the mound this afternoon and it is more than likely Coleman will call on Burden to do the hurling for his team.

After the performance of Shears Saturday against the Hustlers, it showed that he was in tip-top condition and working well, and in view of his masterly pitching on this occasion McKernan thinks he looks well for the opening contest of the championship series.

Ollie Chapman, who spent the day yesterday with relatives in Cincinnati joined the team this morning, and the fast center gardner will be in his regular position this afternoon. Tomorrow being an off day the members of the team will be treated to a big day at the Bourbon Fair.

Says Fish Laws are Enforced.

The newspaper of Cynthiana, which in an editorial charged the officials with the non-enforcement of the fish and game laws, was rebuked by Judge L. P. Fryer, in the Circuit Court there Monday, who declared such statements were not true.

Will Erect New Building.

As soon as the First National Bank can secure possession of the property now occupied by the Adams Express Company on Broadway, recently purchased from the McMillan estate, that institution will immediately begin tearing away the old structure and the building adjoining purchased from Mrs. Sarah Hanson, of Lexington.
Upon the site the First National will begin the erection of a modern four story banking and office building.

THEATRICAL.

"THE NIGHT RIDER."

All the world loves a lover. Therefore all who witness the production of "The Night Rider," a soul-stirring melodrama, which will be seen at the Grand on Thursday night, will enjoy a treat that few plays of the season afford. The story of the play abounds in soul-stirring interest, and the seemingly unsurmountable obstacles the young lovers have to overcome keep the audience on edge from the rise to the fall of the curtain. The plot is based on political crookedness and is woven around the machinations of a district judge, a role enacted by Logan Paul.

COBURN'S GREATER MINSTRELS.

Three of the latest and best song successes of the season, "Good Bye My Love, Good Bye," "When the Sands of the Desert Grow Cold," and "If All My Dreams Were Gold I'd Buy the World for You," sung by Leslie D.
Berry, the interlocutor and robust baritone, and Justin J. McCarthy, lyric tenor and yodler with the big fun show, J. A. Coburn's Greater Minstrels, next Saturday night at the Paris Grand. Everything new this season, new people, comedians, jokes, songs, new special scenery and electric effects. A great big laughing hit, better than ever and always good.
